Remember this for FBC; this isn't just about a move for our church; it's a step of obedience. Get ready!

The Czech Republic is a gorgeous country in Central Europe surrounded by Austria, Germany, and Poland. Its people are warm and friendly, and almost all are lost. For the most part they are very open to discussing spiritual matters. At least 30 of our members have served in the towns of Uherske Hradiste or Otrokovice. Some have gone with us 3 times. We have two partner churches we serve and have many dear friends. We teach English lessons, sing, play games, and build close relationships. Can you go with us this July or August? Come find out about it Feb 11.

By God's amazing grace, the Hispanic Ministry is growing, but as of February 18 we will have no childcare. We desperately need some loving ladies to care for our precious children so that we may continue to grow - and they all speak English! Please call me directly at 813-478-5754. Thank you!
